

BCU 4 Star Open Canoe Assessment Course

With Steve Banks

Overview:

This is the assessment course for the BCU 4 Star Open Canoe Leader Award. The remit of this qualification is significantly greater than its predecessor and now permits holders to lead a group of up to 4 competent others on moderate inland water. Candidates who trained under the old scheme must ensure that they meet all the extra requirements of the new award before presenting for assessment. Please note that this is not a coaching award and it is not deemed suitable by the BCU for the introduction of beginners to the sport.

Content:

The assessment course will cover the following competencies:

Personal paddling skills

Safety and rescue

Leadership and group management

Theory (e.g. access, logistics, environment etc.)

For the full syllabus please go to the BCU website

Assessment will be by task setting, observation and questioning in a friendly and supportive atmosphere.

Prerequisites:

It is the candidate's responsibility to ensure that they are aware of and meet the minimum requirements for this qualification. Check the BCU website.

Registration for assessment with the BCU (Form LR) prior to assessment
